

CZAR'S ARMY WINS SWEEPING VICTORY

STRIKE BRINGS ALL NEW YORK FACE TO FACE WITH POSSIBILITY OF WALKING TO WORK

STRIKE SCENE IN NEW YORK CITY

F. W. WHITRIDGE

The strike on the surface car lines of New York city, which threatened to tie up the entire transportation systems of the city unless checked speedily, began when the men of the lines in Westchester county went out. Thence the trouble spread to the borough of the Bronx, which has about 600,000 inhabitants. Next to fall in line were the motormen and conductors of the Manhattan street cars, and they proclaimed their belief that they could call out the workers of the subways and elevated railroads. The surface car men on strike numbered 5,450, and the passengers carried on their lines in normal times is estimated at 2,300,000 daily. The elevated and subway lines more than double these figures. The American Federation of Labor is trying to find a basis of adjustment of the men's demands, the chief of which is recognition of their rights to organize into unions. The public service commission, which has been holding an inquiry into the events leading up to the strike of motormen and conductors employed by the Third Avenue Railroad company, ruled that Frederick W. Whitridge, president of the company, was to blame for the strike. The commission found that Mr. Whitridge "either intentionally violated" an agreement he had made to arbitrate labor troubles with his employees "or that he was so negligent in his duties to his stockholders, his employees and the public as to forget entirely his important agreement." But for this oversight or negligence on Mr. Whitridge's part the city would not be confronted with the present transit situation, the commission held. This statement drew a protest from Alfred A. Cook, counsel for the Third Avenue Railroad Company.

OVERWHELMING VOTE FAVOR STRIKE ORDER

Brotherhood Chiefs Put Proposal Before Railroad Men and Counter Offer Is Expected.

Meeting With Officials in Effort to Settle.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
New York, August 8.—The 400,000 railway employees of the country—engineers, conductors, firemen and trainmen—today, through the chiefs of their four brotherhoods, placed before the managers of the railroads the question—whether the roads were willing to grant their demands for an eight hour day and time and a half pay for overtime, or submit to a strike.

The result of the strike vote taken among the employees during the last month was presented to the National Conference Committee of Railroad Managers, and showed that an overwhelming majority was in favor of authorizing their chiefs to call a strike.

The railroad managers gave no definite answer to the renewed demands of the men today, and it was agreed to adjourn until tomorrow morning, to give the managers time for further discussion.

The president of the Order of Railway Conductors notified the managers that the time for parleying was over, unless the roads were prepared to present a modified proposition.

A decision whether 400,000 employees of two hundred and twenty-five railroads in the United States should go on strike to enforce their demands, is expected to result from conference Committee on Railroads with the heads of the four great railroad brotherhoods, which was resumed here today. No decision was looked for today.

It was reported that the managers would ask for a delay of several days to consider the proposals of the men, and that another meeting would be held later in the week, when final answer would be given.

IN FRANCE

(Associated Press Cable.)

LONDON, AUGUST 8.—BOTH AT VERDUN AND ON THE SOMME FRONTS, IN NORTHERN FRANCE, THE OPPOSING ARMIES ARE ENGAGED IN ALMOST CONTINUOUS FIGHTING.

THE ADVANTAGE AT VERDUN SEEMS FOR THE TIME BEING TO REST WITH THE GERMANS, WHILE ALONG THE SOMME THE ENTENTE FORCES APPEAR THE DECIDED GAINERS.

Paris today reports the success of an operation conducted in conjunction with the British north of the Somme.

While General Haig's forces were attacking at Guillemont, the French advanced east of Hill 139.

East of Trones Wood, the thrust by the British carried their lines forward at some places during the night.

Nearer the river, French troops repelled two attempts by the Germans to recapture trenches which the French took yesterday.

At Verdun, the Fleury-Thiaumont sector, northeast of the fortress, continues the scene of a desperate struggle.

The Germans made use of strong attacks early today and succeeded in again gaining a footing in the Thiaumont work, which has changed hands several times during the recent battling.

Elsewhere, the Germans were repulsed with heavy losses, Paris announces.

The offensive opened by the Italians along the Isonzo is attracting renewed attention to this field of war.

Several lines of entrenchments were carried by the Italians in their initial assault, which also gained them 3,600 prisoners, and Vienna admits that the lost ground has been only partly recovered.

Latest reports from Rome credit General Cadorna's troops with the capture of a number of additional positions.

These troops were rushed to the border during the Mexican crisis without proper examination.

The enlisted men, who have less to lose if rejected than the officers, do not express the same degree of uneasiness over the outcome.

BREAD PRICES TO BE HIGHER

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 8.—“House wives will have to pay more for bread in the near future”. So declared Jay Burns, president of the National Association of Master Bakers, in his annual address delivered before their convention here today. Industrial preparedness, first for individual efficiency, and second for industrial efficiency, were advocated by Mr. Burns, who made this last include organized co-operation in scientific knowledge of methods and processes.

That the value of bakery products in the United States jumped from $176,000,000 in 1900 to $600,000,000 in 1915; that the number of bakeries had increased 61 percent in that period; that the value of their products 127 percent; capital invested 160 percent, while the population served increased only 20 percent, were some of the things pointed out by the speaker, who predicted the annual baking output of the United States would approximate $1,000,000,000.

“The baker has too long been the football of unscrupulous and ignorant politicians, and the stalking horse for the food faddists,” said Mr. Burns, in asking for co-operation. “We need to co-operate for betterment, for improvement in the quality of product.”

In explaining the reasons for the high cost of bread, Mr. Burns said: “While it is true that much of the machinery now used has reduced materially the amount of hand labor employed, it is equally true that up keep and depreciation on machinery shorter hours, higher wages, better facilities, which bakers have adopted, have absorbed nearly or quite all of the saving, so that the cost, exclusive of material, of producing 1,000 loaves of bread, notwithstanding all our new machinery, is much greater today than it was 10 or 20 years ago.”

He gave statistics, showing the various increases in the raw materials used in producing bread, since 1914 and said that during all this time there has been an advance in the price of bread to the consumer of from 15 to 25 per cent. He advised his hearers not to be afraid to face the rise, and lose customers, because, he said the cost of producing home bread was much greater than that of commercial made bread.

“We need to cultivate the friendliness of the press,” he said in conclusion, “and we held this powerful, nation-wide influence to aid in the solution of many of our problems. The industry should maintain a publicity bureau, fully equipped to handle publicity for the industry, and inform the public what the bakers are doing to better conditions of labor, to improve the surroundings for labor, to shorten hours, to increase the hours of daylight service and decrease the hours of night service, and take the public into our confidence regarding the cost of producing a loaf of bread.”

NEW SIGNAL LIGHTS ON PENNA. LINES

A complete change in the color scheme of signal indications will be made on the entire Pennsylvania

Railroad System, both east and west of Pittsburgh, as soon as the necessary materials can be obtained. Orders for the required material are now being placed.

White lights are to be eliminated altogether as a signal indication. Green will replace white for “clear” or “proceed,” while a bright, distinctive yellow, visible at great distances, will be used for “caution.” Red will continue to mean “stop.”

The elimination of white from the signal color scheme has been rendered desirable by the increasing use of white lights of various kinds in buildings, driveways, roads and streets close or adjacent to the Railroad’s right of way.

The Pennsylvania Railroad System, however, is unwilling to proceed with the change until a yellow glass could be obtained for the “caution” signals which would give a bright light at long distances and still would not be liable to be mistaken for white, and so confused with other lights along the line of the Railroad. Progress in the art of coloring glass, after years of experiments, has resulted in the production of such glass.

Adoption of the new signal system will mean the changing of hundreds of thousands of colored glasses and lenses. This will require considerable time for completion, especially as slow deliveries are to be expected owing to industrial conditions resulting from the European war.

Not only will alterations have to be made in all of the semaphore signals, but the following devices will also be affected.

Marker lights on the rear of passenger and freight trains; switch lamps and targets; markers for track tanks; “slow” signs; “resume speed” signs; hand lamps at interlocking and block signal stations; and lights displayed to the public at crossing gates. Lights for the latter purpose will be red instead of green, as at present.

The proposed signal system has been tried out on the extreme eastern end of the New York Division and has been found to work satisfactorily. It is also being adopted in portions of the country off the Pennsylvania lines, so that desirable uniformity will be obtained.

No change is to be made on those short portions of the Pennsylvania Railroad lines which are protected by “position light” signals, in which the various indications are given by rows of electric lights showing against a black background in the various positions of the semaphore arms.

PROHIBITION LIVE ISSUE IN TEXAS

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Houston, Texas, Aug. 8.—The part the prohibition question will play in Texas politics for the next year was the predominating issue before the state Democratic convention which opened here today. The convention will continue until the party’s business of adopting a platform, ratifying the candidates nominated in the state primary July 22, electing a state executive committee and other routine matters are finished.

Coming on the heels of a referendum election in which the proposition to submit a constitutional amendment for statewide prohibition received a favorable majority of 2,462 votes out of more than 360,000 cast, prohibition is generally considered the greatest political issue in Texas at the present time.

Political observers predict that the Democratic platform would be based on it that it would have an important bearing in deciding the run-off between Senator Charles A. Culberson and Former Governor O. E. Colquitt for the United States senatorial nomination, and that for the coming year at least, the Democratic party would be perceptibly divided on that question.

The results of the July 22 primary, when “submission” carried, were expected to give much material for debate and speculation. Political precedents in Texas show that almost all states, races and questions are divided with the same proportion of votes. In that primary however, Governor James E. Ferguson, who is against statewide prohibition, was renominated by a majority of 67,000 over Charles H. Morris, known as the prohibition candidate.

Senatorial Vaudeville

Both Senator Lewis and Senator Fall could have been employing their time and their talents to much better advantage than they did in indulging in the cheap performance of last Friday when Senator Lewis accused the Republican party managers of being responsible for the Carrizal massacre and Senator Fall with just as little reason and justification accused President Wilson and the present administration with being responsible.

Of course, every man and woman in America knows that both Senators were only staging a bit of cheap political vaudeville, the usefulness of which for misleading voters has long since faded away.

Both Senator Lewis and Senator Fall are paid by the people to attend to the legislation of the land. Neither one of the gentlemen is employed to go to Washington and engage in an endeavor to manufacture political buncomb for the consumption of the voters.

The Senate of the United States is supposed to be a dignified legislative body—in fact we Americans love to think of it and point it out to the world as the most august legislative body on earth.

When senators indulge in cheap nonsense like Senators Lewis and Fall did last Friday all our high ideals are smashed into fragments.

Senate and house would do very much better if they would attend honestly and conscientiously to the real business and let politics alone.

Incidentally too, they would be given more honor and would get more votes, if they only knew it.

Congratulation and Complaint

Our officials are making some progress. The debris and earth heaps are being removed from the newly finished paved streets. There is yet some considerable work to do along that line, but the officials are moving.

We have now progressed to the point where bids for doing the very much needed work of flushing, have been submitted, after so long a time, and it's now up to the service department to contract. All in all there seems now some reason to hope that before the snow flies again the flusher may be at work, although the hold up of bids Monday night is discouraging.

There is another matter—a little thing too—which demands attention and that's the condition of the court house lawn and walks.

Of course, we all realize that this has been an unusually dry hot time and no one expects to see the lawn covered with fresh green grass. People can expect and do expect that the lawn be kept clean and the sidewalks free from litter and filth.

Especially around the benches and walks and the beautiful memorial fountain are conditions little short of disgraceful.

Peanut hulls, sacks, papers, small boxes and all sorts of trash, cigar stumps and tobacco cuds litter the walks and corner until folks are almost compelled to pick their way through.

Strangers must marvel that our people allow such a beautiful corner to remain in such an unsightly and untidy condition.

It is some one's duty to clean up the corner and lawn and keep it clean.

Russia's Rejuvenation

The Russians continue their onward sweep in the eastern war zone. The great horde of Turks rushed in to check the Slav avalanche has proven impotent to the task imposed. Line after line and city after city are surrendered with large numbers of prisoners to the victorious armies of the Czar, until now the fall of Lemberg seems imminent.

The rejuvenation of the Russian armies has been one of the big surprises of the great war.

Not only in Galicia are the Russians making remarkable advances, but in Armenia, under the Grand Duke Nicholas the armies from the far north are proving equal to the task imposed and in the Turks' own climate of heat and drouth and proving more than equal to every call.

It is not impossible with the urgent necessity to strengthen lines in the west and in Galicia the Germans may be compelled to withdraw enough troops from the Riga sector and Poland to warrant the inauguration of an offensive by the Czar in those sections.

If so, it will not be surprising to see stricken Poland again the bloody battle grounds, again fought over and once more fall under the dominion of the "Little Father."

As the war progresses the importance of Russia's support becomes more pronounced and the size of her reward when peace comes grows with a demonstration of her value to the Entente powers.

Poetry For Today

YOU.

You are the twilight when the task is through.
The restfulness when the long day goes by;
You are the dayspring and the sun; rise too,
The rose-dawn on the sky.

You are the blessed rain on desert sands,
The river that redeems the wilderness,
The healing stream that runs through weary lands
Alone to bless.

You are the water when I faint with thirst,
You are the food when I am famishing,
You are the drop of honey in the first
Wild flower of spring.

You are the azure herald of the spring,
The first glad robin song when March is long;
My heart laughs back in rapture welcoming
The first spring song.

You are the Sabbath in the June of year
The rarest, fairest day when June is come,
The gracious autumn with fruition here,
The harvest home.

You are the strength when heart and soul are faint,
The only perfect rose without a sting—
Why hope to tell you all you are, my saint,
For you are everything.

RUSSIANS PUSH FORWARD

Successes Recorded in the Sereth and Graberke River Regions of Galicia. Turks Report Russian Reverses in Persia and Armenia—Brisk Engagements Fought On the Italian Front. British Victory Near Suez Canal.

London, Aug. 8.—Amid continuous heavy rains, which have turned the country into a quagmire, the Russians are keeping up their strong offensive against the Teutonic allies in northern Galicia and have pushed further forward their lines against them in the Seretia and Graberki river region.

Also along the Stokhod river, in Volhynia, near the town of Zareche, the Russians have driven the Teutons from their trenches and occupied them, taking 12 officers and 200 men prisoners and capturing one machine gun in the operation. In the Carpathians the Germans report the capture of two peaks from the Russians.

After bombardment of British positions in the Somme sector in France, the Germans launched violent infantry attacks north and northeast of Pozieres, and at two places succeeded in entering British trenches. Their success was short-lived, for the British soon drove them out, inflicting heavy casualties on them.

The French captured a line of German trenches near the Hem wood, taking 120 prisoners and ten machine guns. The French also claim progress south of the Thaumouk wood.

Constantinople reports a series of gains for the Turks fighting against the Russians, and Petrograd admits at least one of the claims—that the Russians have been forced to retire under pressure in the region east of Kermanhans, Persia. An attack by the Russians north of Bukan, on the Persian front, was put down with heavy losses to the Russians, according to Constantinople, and in Turkish Armenia, near Bitlis and Mush, the Russians have been put to flight and the Turks have taken from them positions the Russians had previously captured.

Near Monte Sabotino and Monte San Michele, the Italians captured advanced Austrian positions, but Vienna says the greater portion of these were later retaken by the Austrians. On the lower Isonzo, Rome reports the capture by the Italians of Hill 85, which was held against violent counter attacks.

The latest reports concerning the attack of the Turks against the British forces, with the Suez canal as their objective, indicates that the Ottoman forces met with a reverse even more serious than was first chronicled. Driven back eighteen miles into the desert, fighting rear guard action, they suffered heavy casualties and of their total force of 14,000 lost 45 officers and 2,000 men made prisoners. They now have been entirely cleared from the Katia Umalshi basin.

Of this number 39 were death claims, all the others being for minor injuries. The report of Chief Claim Examiner H. H. Hamm shows that a total of 197,472 claims have been filed with the commission, of which number 1,953 were for fatal accidents to Ohio workmen. The commission has taken final action in 18,883 cases, leaving less than 2,000 yet to be disposed of. Three public employees were fatally injured during the month and 123 reported otherwise injured.

Worcester, Mass., Aug. 8.—One man was killed and several others were wounded during the riot at the mills of the Barre Wool Combing company and the Norway Worsted company, when special officers who were guarding the plants fired upon a mob of strikers and sympathizers. BOARD OF CONTROL BALKS ON THE FLUSHING CONTRACT

Mystery Surrounds Failure of Board to Act and the Flushing of Streets Is Still Tied Up—Plans for New Lighting System—Washington Water Company to Construct New Dam.

Council opened with all members present and with the council room like an oven, no provision having been made for electric fans in the council room, and the ventilation being very poor.

Edgar Snyder asked for extension of a sewer to three lots on Rawling street, and this was granted.

D. T. McLean urged council to go slow in the letting of contract for flushing, stating that he had been called by R. C. Hunt, president of the Taxpayers League, who had informed him that the amount was excessive.

Application was made for new light on Gregg street, at intersection of Pearl and Gregg.

New Light Plans.
A new lighting plan was submitted by the Washington Gas & Electric Company, in accordance with arrangement made at the last previous meeting.

The new plan is for 165 lamps of 250 candle power each, and 70 lamps of 100 candle power each, or a total, figured on the candle power mentioned, of 48,250 candle power, or approximately 2000 candle power less than contained in the other plan of 416 lamps of 100 candle power and 36 lamps of 250 candle power.

The specifications were for a 4,600 hour, or all night and every night schedule, and a sample contract for a period of ten years.

This was referred to the lighting committee to investigate and report upon at the next meeting.

This system, it is understood, can be furnished at near the present cost for street lighting.

Would Build Dam.
Application was made by the Washington Water Company, through Supt. E. P. Fisher, for agreement of council to the construction of a new dam across Paint creek about 100 feet below the present dam, for the purpose of creating a greater storage reservoir in the basin of the creek to insure proper water supply during dry weather.

It is announced that the dam proposed is to be much longer and higher than the old dam, and hold approximately 8,000,000 to 10,000,000 gallons of water. The State Board of Health had a representative down last week, and he agreed to the plan it was announced, but stated that it would be necessary to construct concrete tops three feet above the present well tops to keep out surface water during flood stage.

Council will investigate and act at an early session.

J. C. Mayer & Company's bid of par, accrued interest and premium of $1250 on the $25,000 bond issue, was accepted.

Mayor Oster's report for July was read, showing $19 fines, $5 dog licenses and $5 street licenses.

An ordinance to appropriate $250 to pay for cleaning the up town streets was passed.

Same Old Squabble.

An ordinance was submitted to levy special assessment on the How-

at lands on Leesburg avenue, for the purpose of constructing the much mooted sidewalk on that street. This brought up the usual squabble over that improvement, Sheets and Rowe opposing the proposal and the other councilmen insisting that it go through.

Evans called attention to the improvement being part of a previous plan and stated that it was included under former legislation and should have been constructed accordingly. Sheets stated that he had previously voted for the improvement without knowing it was included in the legislation, and that the city could not collect the assessment if the work was done.

Veall stated that some property owners declared that unless the improvement was made as originally contemplated, they would not pay their assessments on Leesburg avenue.

After further pointed remarks hurled by various councilmen, a vote was taken with Sheets and Rowe opposing and the others voting in favor of the motion.

That Flushing Joke.

Solicitor Gregg submitted to council a resolution approving the letting of flushing contract to J. S. Wilt, but took occasion to state that the Board of Control, just before the meeting of council, had failed to agree upon letting the contract.

Attention was called to the bids being per square yard instead of per foot front. Solicitor Gregg stated that it was necessary for the Board of Control to act before council could affirm their action.

Service-Safety Director, a member of the Board of Control, stated that he did not feel like letting the contract at present, and wanted an expression from council on the matter.

The Wilt bid was read, and no serious fault noted by council, whereupon Evans stated that if the bid was regular, that the contract should be awarded to Mr. Wilt. Wilt was present and announced his readiness to comply with the terms of the specifications.

Veall moved acceptance of the Wilt bid. Evans declared the bid was probably the lowest the city would ever get, and it was time to quit quibbling and get down to business.

The four bids, based upon price per square yard, are as follows:
J. S. Wilt—Flushing four times each week, 8.4c; three times, 6.3c; two times, 4.2c; one time, 2.1c.

Tom Hillery—Four times each week, 8.4c; three times, 7.3c; two times 7.4c; one time, 6.3c.

O. D. Maddox and Ralph Hess—Four times, 10.4c; three times 9.3c; two times 8.4c; one time 7.4c; Chas. Head—Four times, 11c; three times 10.4c; two times, 9c; one time 7.4c.

John Worrell submitted figures on Columbus property where sprinkling and sweeping was performed once each month.

Geo. Inskeep thought council should go slow, and mentioned the flushing cost proposed as excessive compared with what Circleville was paying. He asked ample investigation be made before a contract is let.

Hess, one of the bidders, stated that Circleville was not flushing streets at present.

When vote was taken on Evans' motion, Evans, Veall, Howell and Rowe voted favorably, and the others voted against the measure. Immediately thereafter Sheets moved for adjournment until next Monday night.

DEATH SUMMONS HARRY A. GREEN

After several years of illness caused by hardening of the arteries Harry A. Green, answered the eternal summons at twenty minutes past four o'clock Monday afternoon at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. George Hanawalt, near Austin.

Mr. Green would have been 45 years old on the 17th of this month. His years had been rounded out in the esteem of many friends and the respect of business associates and his death is learned with very general sorrow and sympathy for his family.

For seventeen years Mr. Green was one of the most successful traveling salesmen with the Dahl-Millikan Grocery Company. Everybody knew "Harry" and his customers were also his friends.

He was a popular member of the I. O. O. F. and U. C. T., but his deepest interests centered in his home, where a widow and two children, Helen and Harry, grieve for a devoted husband and father.

The family spent the past winter in Florida in the vain hope that the climate would prove beneficial, and since their return have been with Mrs. Green's parents near Austin.

The funeral services will be held at the Austin Chapel, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage, of the First Presbyterian church of this city, and Rev. Stone, of Frankfort, will officiate. The I. O. O. F. will also hold a short service.

At sunset all that is mortal will be laid to rest in the cemetery at Frankfort.

DEATH SUMMONS J. L. PERSINGER

John L. Persinger, prominent farmer and stock raiser of this city and widely known as Fayette county's largest landowner, passed into the great beyond Tuesday morning at five o'clock at his home on Dayton avenue.

For some time Mr. Persinger had been suffering from a serious trouble and for the past six months has been confined to his residence.

The only son of the late David Persinger, one of the early settlers and wealthy farmers of the county, Mr. Persinger from the time of his earliest maturity engaged in the same agricultural pursuits of his father, extending his farm interests greatly as the years advanced and being one of the foremost cattle raisers of the county.

It was due to Mr. Persinger that many tracts of land were reclaimed through ditching and he was also active in the pioneer movement in the interests of the C. H. & D. railroad.

Throughout his long and active life, reaching his eightieth year, Mr. Persinger confined his interests to his business and his family, remaining free from outside affiliations to a very unusual degree for a man of his affluence.

He is survived by a widow and seven children: Charles Persinger, Mrs. Harry Pugsley, Miss Fannie, Dr. Carey Persinger, Mrs. John Case, of Greenfield, Jesse P. and Rilla Persinger.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m., Thursday at the residence, burial to follow in the Washington cemetery.

The family requests that friends kindly omit flowers.

DEATHS BAYLES.

Mr. Edward Bayles, of Bloomingburg, died at the Ohio State Hospital Monday evening.

The remains were brought to the undertaking rooms of undertaker Klever, Tuesday afternoon from the 3:40 train.

Funeral arrangements will be announced in Wednesday paper.

In Social Circles

With only the immediate families in attendance at the home of the bride Monday evening at seven o'clock, Rev. J. Vernon Stone performed the double ring ceremony which united in marriage Miss Edna Fenner and Dr. L. Loring Brock. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fenner, and granddaughter of Mrs. Electa J. Selsor, her family connection, a large and representative one. She is a girl of unusually winning personality and as pretty as she is sweet and lovable.

In her going away gown, a modish fall suit of French serge, in navy blue, with bodice of Alice blue georgette crepe and filet net, and chic small hat of blue and white, she was a most charming young bride.

Dr. Brock, the son of Mrs. Josephine Kimball, is one of the foremost young physicians of this section, with a very large clientele and an unusual personal popularity in both his professional and social life.

Except for a year abroad spent chiefly in special medical and surgical work in the hospitals of Vienna, Dr. Brock has practiced his profession with growing success in this city since receiving his diploma at Starling Medical College.

The best wishes of a host of friends, confined by no means to the younger circles of their greatest intimacy, follow Dr. Brock and his bride upon their wedding journey. They left on the Queen City limited for Chicago and a month's trip. Upon their return they will go at once to house-keeping in the Kearney residence on the corner of Market and Forest streets, recently vacated by Hon. and Mrs. Frank C. Parrett.

An enjoyable family reunion was held by Mrs. Robert Olinger and family, three miles west of Washington C. H., on Sunday. Those who participated were:

Mr. and Mrs. George Olinger and family; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Engle; Mrs. Jessie Bush and son Otis; Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Kennedy and niece Helen Orr; Mr. and Mrs. Logan Buzick; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Coll and family; Mr. Walter Engle, all from Washington C. H.; Mrs. Chas. Davis and niece Dora Parks; Miss Blanche Davis and Wylie Brown; Miss Marie Ward and Harold West, all from Wilmington and Macedonia.

Miss Dora Parks remained for the week end with Miss Ilo Olinger.

ELECTION NEWS AT THE HERALD

As usual The Herald will receive continuous Associated Press election service tonight, and all persons interested in the returns will be made welcome. No screen will be used tonight, however.

For several hours the full returns will be announced from The Herald office as importance warrants.

County returns also will be received.

PRIMARY VOTE SAME AS USUAL

Indications as late as two o'clock Tuesday afternoon were that the primary vote being polled would reach about the usual primary vote of between one-third and one-half the total vote of the county.

Many of those voting went to the polls early, and from nine o'clock until noon, in the city, not many voted. There was another rush at the noon hour, however and then the voting quieted down again until late in the afternoon.

Indications were that the Democratic vote would be very light.

Chief interest in the local ticket was in the fight for commissioner, clerk of courts and prosecutor, and the candidates and their friends were invariably active throughout the day.

In all probability the count-out will be completed early tonight.

For the past twenty years, she has made her home in this city, with her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, who has given the most devoted care and affection during her mother's declining years.

Before her health failed, Mrs. Thompson was active in the work of Grace church, the W. C. T. U. and other societies. Her friends were many and warm and their sympathy goes out to the lonely daughter at home and the children away from here.

HUGHES ASSAILS WILSON

Foreign Policies Attacked By Republican Nominee.

MEXICO GIVEN AN AIRING

Speaker Holds Vera Cruz Incident an Act of War and Declares If Elected President He Will See to It That American Rights Are Respected in Mexico—First Set Speech of Trip Made at Detroit.

Detroit, Aug. 8.—Before a large audience in Arcadia auditorium, last night, Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for president, attacked the administration for its foreign policy, for appointing men whom he termed inexperienced in diplomatic posts and for what he characterized as a "raid upon the civil service of the United States."

"He kept us out of war," Mr. Hughes said, referring to the president, "and yet we seized Vera Cruz—that was war, a very ignoble war. And it was called war over the bodies of those dead soldiers—it was called a war of service."

"Talk about policy. What is the president's policy—does any one know? Has the executive ever had a policy for more than six months on the Mexican question? I repeat, who knows today what the policy of the administration will be three months hence? My friends, the trouble is that this administration has written such a record that no matter what it says, you do not know whether it will stick to it."

"We have had an exhibition during the past three years which, I confess, fills me with a deep sense of shame. I have not a particle of militaristic spirit in my system, but if I am elected president I will see to it that the American rights in Mexico are respected."

Mr. Hughes assailed the administration's course toward upholding American rights abroad during the European war. "When I say that I am an American citizen," the nominee said, "I ought to say the proudest thing that any man can say in this world. But you can't have that pride if American citizenry is a cheap thing. If it is not worthy of protection this wide world over. There is no man who could successfully present to an American community the platform that an American citizen's rights stop at the coast line, and that beyond that American life is to be the prey of any marauder that chooses to take it."

The nominee cited the Republican platform's declaration that 30,000 government positions had been taken from the operation of the civil service law during the present administration and declared that "that sort of thing has got to stop."

"It was inexcusable," Mr. Hughes asserted, for the administration to take "out of country after country in Latin America, where we have frequently said we desired to cultivate the most friendly relations," men in the diplomatic service who "had represented the country with credit and had acquired an admirable and important experience," and "put in men utterly inexperienced."

Speaking to forty manufacturers of Detroit and vicinity, employing nearly 100,000 men, Mr. Hughes congratulated them upon what they had done for the welfare of their employees, told them that the democracy of the United States would not stand for a continuation of "this alleged strife between capital and labor and declared that the American workmen should not be regarded as a mere economic unit, but as a fellow worker, a human being."

BALLOT BATTLE RAGES TODAY

Light Vote Anticipated at the Primaries Today.

Columbus, Aug. 8.—At the primaries today candidates for state and county offices are to be nominated and members of the Republican and Democratic county central committees and the state central committees are to be elected. The polls opened at 5:30 a. m. and will close at 5:30 p. m.

Although only a light vote is predicted by election board officials, the candidates are so numerous that it is expected it will be late tonight before results are definitely known.

The hottest contest is that between Myron T. Herrick and Harry M. Daugherty for the Republican nomination for United States senator. Senator Pomerene is expected to defeat John J. Lentz for the Democratic nomination for senator.

For governor it is expected that Frank B. Willis and James M. Cox will be the Republican and Democratic nominees respectively.

Philadelphia, Aug. 8.—Motion picture theaters in this city were closed to children under sixteen years old by order of the health authorities in an effort to check the spread of infantile paralysis. COULDN'T CONCLUDE THE TASK

Naval Bill Referred Back to the Two Houses.

TWO POINTS OF DISPUTE

House Conferees Opposed to the Senate Program For the Construction of Eighteen Capital Ships and to Personnel Increases—Administration Heads Would Induce House Leaders to Yield.

Washington, Aug. 8.—The conferees on the naval appropriation bill voted to disagree on the big construction program and personnel increases, the only remaining points of dispute in that measure, so that the issues might be referred back for quick settlement by the two houses themselves.

A complete agreement was submitted by the conference committee on the army appropriation bill.

Members of the house, the majority of whom are away on vacation, will be called to Washington next week for a vote on the building and personnel sections of the naval bill. Representative Padgett, chairman of the house committee, said he would submit the conference report Thursday and call it up the following Tuesday or Wednesday for action.

President Wilson, navy department officials and other "adequate defense" champions of the administration are expected to make a determined effort to induce house leaders to yield to the senate program for construction of 66 vessels, 18 of them to be capital ships, during 1917.

The house provided for only five capital ships. If it votes to insist on its original provisions, it is said the senate conferees will offer to give up the three-year continuing program in the senate bill as an inducement to house leaders to reconsider and accept the big program for the first year.

The army appropriation bill as agreed on carried $267,597,000, or $85,000 in excess of the house bill. A report had been delayed several days while the war department made an unsuccessful effort to induce the house conferees to recede from their insistence on the Hay amendment, making retired officers exempt from the provisions of the military code. President Wilson and Secretary Baker objected to the amendment.

PROFESSOR HARNACK TALKS ON PEACE AND DEFENDS GERMAN GOVERNMENT

PROF. ADOLF HARNACK

Professor Adolf Harnack, the eminent German theologian, whose works are known throughout the world, is one of the most conspicuous of the men now lecturing to Germans on peace, with the sanction of the German government. These men began their endeavors in the large cities of the empire August 1. They desire to prepare the minds of their compatriots for consideration of the war's end and the objects to be attained by Germany's gigantic struggles. Professor Harnack is a professor of theology and general director of the Royal library in Berlin. Of his numerous books, "What is Christianity?" is probably best known to English speaking readers. In his address in Berlin he warned his hearers not to expect or demand too much from the results of the war, as Germany must remember the lot of her confederates as well as her own success. He appealed for confidence in the administration of Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg, which he said had done its utmost to avert the war. Its attitude toward certain neutrals history would some day justify, Professor Harnack said.

PRUNING KNIFE

Washington, Aug. 8.—The conferees on the army appropriation bill cut the appropriation which Secretary of War Baker requested to pay the expenses of mobilization camps down to exactly one-half of the amount asked for by the secretary of war. Secretary Baker asked for $3,000,000 and the conferees allowed $1,500,000. Secretary Baker in his letter to the military committee of congress refers specifically to the expenditure of $239,000 at Upper Arlington, Columbus, and says the large expenditures there should not have been made without authority of the war department.

SUGGEST CHANGE MUNITIONS TAX

Senators Also Propose Increases In Inheritance Tax.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Complete revision of the munitions tax section of the house revenue bill and sweeping increases in the inheritance tax were ordered recommended to the Democratic caucus by Democratic members of the senate finance committee. The proposed higher taxes on big inheritances will increase the estimated revenue from that section of the bill alone from $54,000,000 to $72,000,000 annually.

Retaining in the house bill taxes of 1 per cent on estates over $50,000 graduated up to 5 per cent on those in excess of $450,000, the committee added schedules of 6 per cent on net estates in excess of $1,000,000; 7 per cent on $2,000,000 to $3,000,000; 8 per cent on $3,000,000 to $4,000,000; 9 per cent on $4,000,000 to $5,000,000, and 10 per cent on estates in excess of $5,000,000.

In revising the munitions tax the committee struck out the varying rates provided in the house bill for munitions of war, powder, explosives, shells, cartridges, projectiles, products of copper and the like, and decided to substitute a flat uniform tax on all of these commodities.

The income tax section is completed, the committee retaining the normal tax of 2 per cent on all incomes in excess of $4,000 and $3,000, respectively, for married and single persons, adding the special tax of 1 per cent on incomes in excess of $3,000 and $2,000, respectively, for married and single persons; retaining the sur-taxes as proposed in the house bill, with the exception of an increase from 10 to 13 per cent on incomes in excess of $1,000,000. All of the proposed changes are subject to the approval of the Democratic caucus.

FORWARD

London, Aug. 8.—Closing in upon German East Africa, separate British forces have won victories both on the south and east, it was officially announced.

British naval forces, co-operating with General Smuts, occupied the small German port of Sandani last Tuesday after slight opposition. Other naval operations are progressing along the coast line. In the region of Mpwapwa, 150 miles west of the coast, a British detachment operating in the direction of Singenda engaged an enemy force which surrendered after a vigorous resistance in a block-house. General Morthey, operating in the southern part of the German colony, defeated the Germans in an engagement July 24 near Malansali, the Germans losing 150 killed and wounded, besides prisoners.

GLORIA'S ROMANCE

By Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hughes

Novelized from the Motion Picture Play of the same name by George Kleine.

SYNOPSIS.

Pierpont Stafford, banker and railroad magnate, with his sixteen-year-old daughter, Gloria, is wintering at Palm Beach. Gloria is a vivacious, but willful young lady who chafes under the restraining hand of a governess from whom she repeatedly escapes. Her childish capers cause young Doctor Royce to fall in love with her. She steals from her room at night and in an auto plunges into the surf where she leaves the car.

Just about the time that Gloria Stafford was feeling her way through the thickets about the Cypress Wolf village Shonolakee led the old horse out to slaughter. She was weeping so bitterly that she did not heed when the sacrificial knife fell from her belt. She tied the horse, said her prayer, and reached for the blade. It was gone. She turned back to look for it.

She had not gone far when Gloria Stafford parted the palmetto leaves and saw before her the steed she had prayed for.

She approached it with coaxing words and untied the halter. The pony shied and tried to caress her with its heels. Gloria had been well schooled in horsemanship from childhood, and she soon had her hands in the mane of the unwilling mustang and vaulted to its back.

She had no sooner set her heels into its ribs than the old squaw returned with the recovered knife. She saw the sanctified charger being carried off—and by a ragamuffin evidently from one of the white trash families that even the Seminoles despised.

She gave a wild cry of alarm, the fierce "Yo-ho-ee-hee!" that had once made the Indian-hunters' blood run cold. The tribe answered in wondering haste. She pointed to Gloria and the vanishing horse. It was not vanishing very fast, for the wilderness was thick and Gloria did not know the way. The Seminoles divided and ran in various directions to head her off.

In a few moments the young chief himself leaped from ambush, and caught the horse by the nose and ear. The old squaw was not far behind and Gloria was dragged to the ground and threatened with the death of a thief—a sacrilegious thief.

Old Shonolakee raised her knife and was about to plunge it into the heart of the shivering captive when something about the captive made her pause. She saw that the lad was a lass. Her rage was forgotten in amazement for a moment. She grunted: "The boy is one squaw."

The other Indians stared at Gloria and the pallor of her horror was reddened with shame. The blush was very becoming to her. The young chief stepped forward for a closer look at it.

Thinking him a possible rescuer Gloria turned on him one of her ninety candlepower smiles. The effect was greater than she had expected. Katcalani was dazzled. He blinked, then turned his eyes on the smoky Indian maidens clustered about. Each of them had ambitious dreams of being his wife. But shabbily as Gloria was dressed she was a tearing beauty in any company. Compared to the unkempt daughters of the everglades she was a goddess.

Katcalani's heart beat with a new kind of excitement. He resolved to begin his new chieftainship with an act of courage. He would defy not only the men, but even the women! He seized Gloria's hand and shouted:

"If boy is squaw he is my squaw." Gloria did not understand the meaning of this. But she saw that it had not endeared her to the Indian women. They murmured their wrath and would have struck her down if Katcalani had not protected her. She drew closer to him and he took that for consent. They led her into the village, a huddled group of palmetto leaves. Shonolakee first went aside and sent the dead chief's horse on the long road to the happy pastures. Then she returned to prepare Gloria for the honor of becoming the wife of the chief. She led her into her own hut and gave her the habiliments of an honest squaw in place of the boy's disgraceful togs. Seminole ladies are modest. Then she showed Gloria a little sewing machine. She had bought it with the proceeds of rattlesnake skins she had sold to tourists in the village along the railroad. She promised Gloria that some day if she were good she might be allowed to play on the machine. The squaw's idea of being good consisted largely of doing heavy labor. The first duty of a wife was to gather wood for the fire. She set Gloria to work.

FINE WORK

(By American Press)

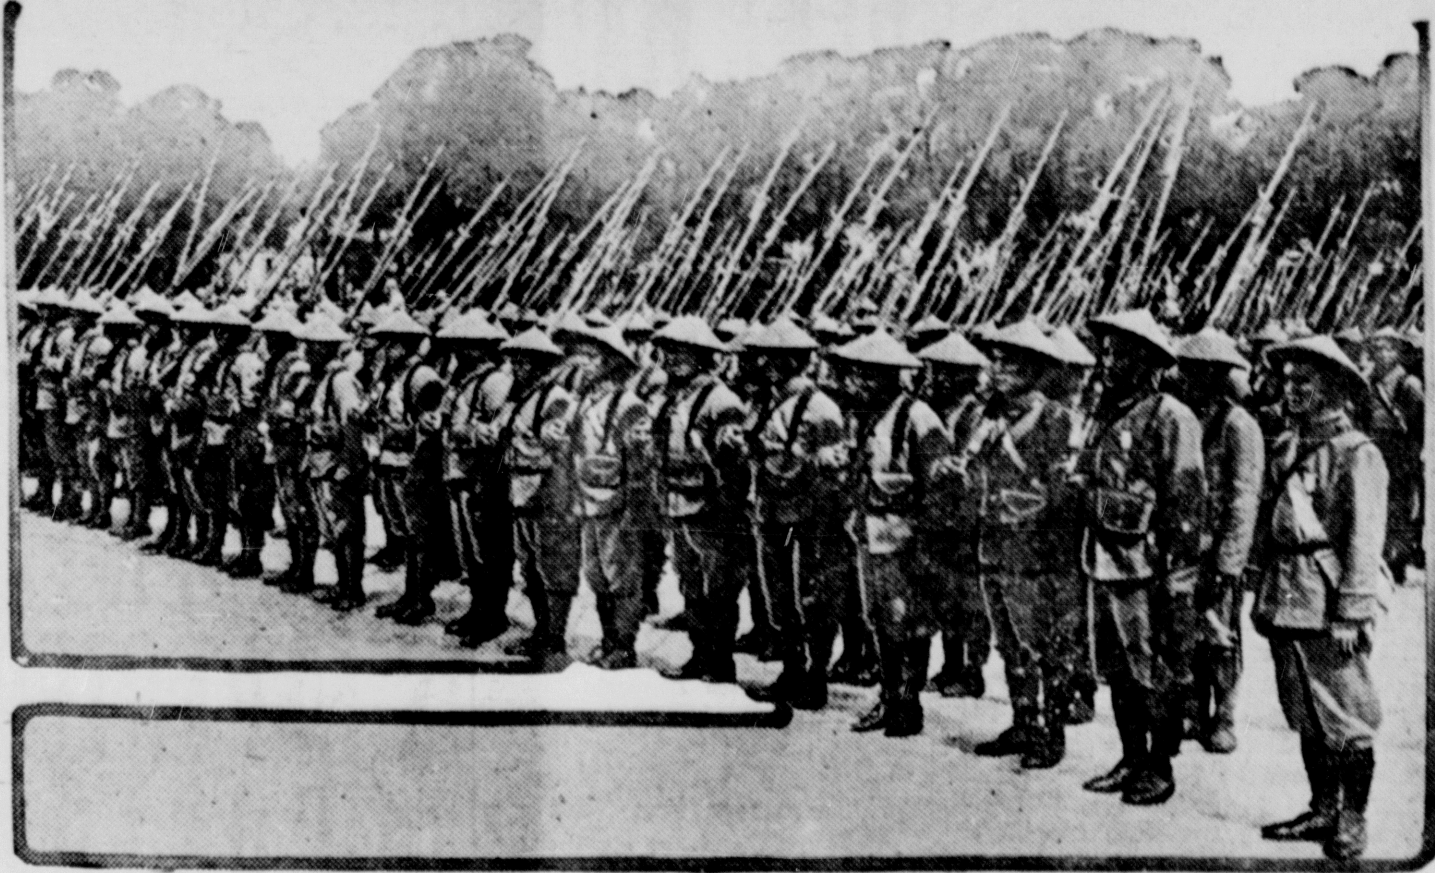

New York, Aug. 8.—The strike on the surface railway lines here, which threatened to extend to the subway and elevated systems and thus completely tie up transportation facilities in Greater New York, came to an end last night. Directors of the New York Railways companies and the Third Avenue company, the two principal lines affected, voted after being deadlocked for twelve hours to accept a plan of settlement proposed by Mayor Mitchell and Oscar S. Straus, chairman of the public service commission, after representatives of the strikers had agreed to it. One of the chief concessions in the settlement gives the employees the right to organize. Wage demands are to be arbitrated.

SHONTS AND HEDLEY. LEADING FIGURES IN NEW YORK CAR STRIKE

T. P. SHONTS (upper)
F. R. HEDLEY (lower)

THINGS DOING AT THE MOVIES

WONDERLAND.
Marguerite Clark leads an exceptional list of Paramount stars at the Wonderland this week, appearing Tuesday in a Daniel Frohman production of "Mice and Men," adapted from the original stage version. In this clever comedy-drama, Miss Clarke will surprise her admirers. Dustin Farnum is the central figure of Wednesday's bill, "The Call of the Cumberlands," a big outdoors sort of a story for a big outdoor sort of a man. The play is a screen interpretation of the play and novel of the name written by Charles Neville Black. This, too, is a Paramount.

Pauline Frederick, chief among Paramount's ultra-beauties, is the sinuous star of Friday's Paramount, "The Spider," a Vampire play from the pen of William H. Clifford expressed through Daniel Frohman.

COLONIAL.
Versatile Mae Marsh and Robert Harron, long and lean but there with the goods, do double-harness in a lively, open air drama entitled "The Wild Girl of the Sierras," presented by Triangle at the Colonial Theater Monday and Tuesday.

Emily Wehlen, the famous Viennese actress, whose American appearances on board and screen have added appreciably to her laurels, is the Colonial's Wednesday star, appearing in a Metro emotional of striking power, "When a Woman Loves."

William S. Hart, "The Iron Man" returns Thursday and Friday with teeth gritted and fists clenched in one of his best recent characterizations, "The Apostle of Vengeance," a play revolving about a family feud in the fastnesses of Kentucky. The atmosphere is the same this vital protayer has ever breathed, though the locality itself is quite new.

PALACE.

Bertha Kalish is the first of the Palace's feature stars for the week leading Tuesday in "Ambition," a picture which amounts to a detailed study of the virtuous vice—or vicious virtue—of self betterment. The play is a Fox.

Beloved Billie Burke appears again Wednesday in the second chapter of the popular serial "Gloria's Romance."

"Love's Toll," the V. L. S. E. offering for this week, introduces three comparatively late but none the less proficient stars, Rosetta Brice, Richard Buhler and Crauford Kent. It presents the efforts of the heroine to become a famous prima donna and her experiences with two widely different men. A physical encounter between these men is the picture's vital feature.

Friday, unannounced; Saturday, "Pe o' the Ring," 7th chapter. "Peg o' the Ring," 7th chapter.

NORRIS IS LANDED

Washington, Aug. 8.—George Norris of Philadelphia was designated by President Wilson as farm loan commissioner, executive head of the farm loan bank system created by the new rural credits act. Mr. Norris is one of the two Democratic members of the farm loan board.

FINANCIAL WORRIES

(By American Press)

Springfield, Aug. 8.—B. B. Roof, who is said to have worried over financial troubles for the past week, shot and killed his wife and baby and then died, a suicide. Roof was a farmer and lived near Northampton.

Coal Miners Wanted.

Bridgeport, O., Aug. 8.—Four thousand more miners are needed in eastern Ohio, according to C. J. Albasin, commissioner of the Ohio Coal operators here. Approximately 13,500 men are now employed in this subdistrict, which is about 150 below normal when all the mines are operating. All the mines are now working.

Young Girl Attacked.

Toledo, Aug. 8.—Armed with shot-guns, rifles, clubs and pistols, residents of Walbridge and farmers in the vicinity searched the country for a man who attacked a ten-year-old girl living near Walbridge. The girl was walking home with a pail of milk and a basket of eggs when she was attacked and dragged into a cornfield.

FIRE MARSHAL HAS BUSY MONTH

Columbus, O., August 8.—The Bermuda "Hi" never faded the twenty-five deputies, inspectors, investigators and assistants of State Fire Marshal Bert B. Buckley, every one of whom were on duty every day during July, making the torrid month a mid-summer record breaker for the department.

Regardless of the heat there were nearly 1,000 inspections and orders placed on over 800 fire hazards. During the month a dozen arrests were made in arson cases, with the following results: Six confessions; bound over, eight; juvenile court, three; committed to asylum, three.

TORRIDITY BROKEN BY MORNING RAINS

The heat wave was broken temporarily, Tuesday morning, by scattered rains, at no time prior to eleven o'clock Tuesday morning the mercury reaching higher than 74 degrees, and at eleven o'clock the mercury stood at 70.

But Monday afternoon and Monday night were hot ones, the mercury as gauged by the thermometer on Gossard's corner, registering 76 degrees at midnight, a drop of four degrees from nine o'clock Monday night. Monday afternoon the mercury climbed up into the nineties. Occasional cool breezes prevented the night from being wholly unbearable.

OFFICIAL REPORT

The following report is based upon reports received from regular crop correspondents of the Department of agriculture.

The wheat harvest is far enough advanced that an estimate of the yield may be made with approximate correctness. Correspondents of this Department estimate the production at 70 per cent compared with a normal production of 15 bushels per acre. The estimated acreage harvested was 1,577,352 acres. Total production should be approximately 16,562,196 bushels, being 19,468,042 bushels short of 1915 crop.

Oats show a decrease of 2 per cent in prospect compared with estimate of one month ago. The outlook is most discouraging. The severe drought has cut the crop short.

Clover hay will produce an average of 1.6 tons per acre. Timothy put away in best condition for many years with an estimate of 104 per cent compared with an average.

Potatoes show serious damage by drought and bugs and in some localities won't produce half a crop. The general state prospect is estimated at 70 per cent compared with a normal yield a decrease 19 points compared with estimates of one month ago.

Pastures show a decline of 16 points compared with report of last month.

Apples and peaches are reported as dropping badly. Apples being estimated at 55 percent compared with an average, as peaches at 49 per cent.

The continued drought is affecting very unfavorably all growing crops. Some local showers occurred, but were not sufficient for any material improvement. Corn, potatoes, pastures, tobacco and garden truck are suffering badly and unless rain comes soon, these crops will be very light. Water getting scarce.

WOLCOTTS MEET IN CONVENTION

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Chicago, Aug. 8.—Wolcotts from nearly every state in the union met in Chicago today to attend the twelfth annual reunion of the Society of Descendants of Henry Wolcott who came to Plymouth in 1639 and to whom more than 5,000 persons trace their ancestry through ten generations.

The first Wolcott to make America his home settled in Windsor, Conn., and for centuries the main branch of the family remained in the New England states. The family claims 150 names on the revolutionary records of Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut and New York. Thirteen governors of Connecticut and 36 judges in that state during the colonial period were Wolcotts or descendants from that family, the family history says. During the revolutionary period the history claims Oliver Wolcott one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, his son Oliver who was secretary of the treasury in Washington's cabinet and several generals famous in the war. The history enumerates scores of other Wolcotts who since then have held high military, civil and political positions.

CZAR'S ARMY WINS SWEEPING VICTORY

STRIKE BRINGS ALL NEW YORK FACE TO FACE
WITH POSSIBILITY OF WALKING TO WORK

STRIKE SCENE IN NEW YORK CITY

F. W. WHITRIDGE

The strike on the surface car lines of New York city, which threatened to tie up the entire transportation systems of the city unless checked speedily, began when the men of the lines in Westchester county went out. Thence the trouble spread to the borough of the Bronx, which has about 600,000 inhabitants. Next to fall in line were the motormen and conductors of the Manhattan street cars, and they proclaimed their belief that they could call out the workers of the subways and elevated railroads. The surface car men on strike numbered 5,450, and the passengers carried on their lines in normal times is estimated at 2,300,000 daily. The elevated and subway lines more than double these figures. The American Federation of Labor is trying to find a basis of adjustment of the men's demands, the chief of which is recognition of their rights to organize into unions. The public service commission, which has been holding an inquiry into the events leading up to the strike of motormen and conductors employed by the Third Avenue Railroad company, ruled that Frederick W. Whitridge, president of the company, was to blame for the strike. The commission found that Mr. Whitridge "either intentionally violated" an agreement he had made to arbitrate labor troubles with his employees "or that he was so negligent in his duties to his stockholders, his employees and the public as to forget entirely his important agreement." But for this oversight or negligence on Mr. Whitridge's part the city would not be confronted with the present transit situation, the commission held. This statement drew a protest from Alfred A. Cook, counsel for the Third Avenue Railroad Company.

OVERWHELMING VOTE FAVOR STRIKE ORDER

Brotherhood Chiefs Put Proposal Before Railroad Men and Counter Offer Is Expected.

Meeting With Officials in Effort to Settle.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
New York, August 8.—The 400,000 railway employees of the country—engineers, conductors, firemen and trainmen—today, through the chiefs of their four brotherhoods, placed before the managers of the railroads the question—whether the roads were willing to grant their demands for an eight hour day and time and a half pay for overtime, or submit to a strike.

The result of the strike vote taken among the employees during the last month was presented to the National Conference Committee of Railroad Managers, and showed that an overwhelming majority was in favor of authorizing their chiefs to call a strike.
The railroad managers gave no definite answer to the renewed demands of the men today, and it was agreed to adjourn until tomorrow morning, to give the managers time for further discussion.

The president of the Order of Railway Conductors notified the managers that the time for parleying was over, unless the roads were prepared to present a modified proposition.

A decision whether 400,000 employees of two hundred and twenty-five railroads in the United States should go on strike to enforce their demands, is expected to result from conference Committee on Railroads with the heads of the four great railroad brotherhoods, which was resumed here today. No decision was looked for today.

It was reported that the managers would ask for a delay of several days to consider the proposals of the men, and that another meeting would be held later in the week, when final answer would be given.

IN FRANCE

(Associated Press Cable.)
LONDON, AUGUST 8.—BOTH AT VERDUN AND ON THE SOMME FRONTS, IN NORTHERN FRANCE, THE OPPOSING ARMIES ARE ENGAGED IN ALMOST CONTINUOUS FIGHTING.

THE ADVANTAGE AT VERDUN SEEMS FOR THE TIME BEING TO REST WITH THE GERMANS, WHILE ALONG THE SOMME THE ENTENTE FORCES APPEAR THE DECIDED GAINERS.

Paris today reports the success of an operation conducted in conjunction with the British north of the Somme.

While General Haig's forces were attacking at Guillemont, the French advanced east of Hill 129.

East of Trones Wood, the thrust by the British carried their lines forward at some places during the night.

Nearer the river, French troops repelled two attempts by the Germans to recapture trenches which the French took yesterday.

At Verdun, the Fleury-Thiaumont sector, northeast of the fortress, continues the scene of a desperate struggle.

The Germans made use of strong attacks early today and succeeded in again gaining a footing in the Thiaumont work, which has changed hands several times during the recent battling.

Elsewhere, the Germans were repulsed with heavy losses, Paris announces.

The offensive opened by the Italians along the Isonzo is attracting renewed attention to this field of war.

Several lines of entrenchments were carried by the Italians in their initial assault, which also gained them 3,600 prisoners, and Vienna admits that the lost ground has been only partly recovered.

Latest reports from Rome credit General Cadorna's troops with the capture of a number of additional positions.

These troops were rushed to the border during the Mexican crisis without proper examination. The enlisted men, who have less to lose if rejected than the officers, do not express the same degree of uneasiness over the outcome.

BREAD PRICES TO BE HIGHER

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 8—

"House wives will have to pay more for bread in the near future". So declared Jay Burns, president of the National Association of Master Bakers, in his annual address delivered before their convention here today.

Industrial preparedness, first for individual efficiency, and second for industrial efficiency, were advocated by Mr. Burns, who made this last include organized co-operation in scientific knowledge of methods and processes.

That the value of bakery products in the United States jumped from $176,000,000 in 1900 to $600,000,000 in 1915; that the number of bakeries had increased 61 percent in that period; that the value of their products 127 percent; capital invested 160 percent, while the population served increased only 20 percent, were some of the things pointed out by the speaker, who predicted the annual baking output of the United States would approximate $1,000,000,000.

"The baker has too long been the football of unscrupulous and ignorant politicians, and the stalking horse for the food faddists," said Mr. Burns, in asking for co-operation. "We need to co-operate for betterment, for improvement in the quality of product."

In explaining the reasons for the high cost of bread, Mr. Burns said:

"While it is true that much of the machinery now used has reduced materially the amount of hand labor employed, it is equally true that up keep and depreciation on machinery shorter hours, higher wages, better facilities, which bakers have adopted, have absorbed nearly or quite all of the saving, so that the cost, exclusive of material, of producing 1,000 loaves of bread, notwithstanding all our new machinery, is much greater today than it was 10 or 20 years ago."

He gave statistics, showing the various increases in the raw materials used in producing bread, since 1914 and said that during all this time there has been an advance in the price of bread to the consumer of from 15 to 25 percent. He advised his hearers not to be afraid to face the rise, and lose customers, because, he said the cost of producing home bread was much greater than that of commercial made bread.

"We need to cultivate the friendliness of the press," he said in conclusion, "and we held this powerful, nation-wide influence to aid in the solution of many of our problems. The industry should maintain a publicity bureau, fully equipped to handle publicity for the industry, and inform the public what the bakers are doing to better conditions of labor, to improve the surroundings for labor, to shorten hours, to increase the hours of daylight service and decrease the hours of night service, and take the public into our confidence regarding the cost of producing a loaf of bread."

NEW SIGNAL LIGHTS ON PENNA. LINES

A complete change in the color scheme of signal indications will be made on the entire Pennsylvania

Railroad System, both east and west of Pittsburgh, as soon as the necessary materials can be obtained. Orders for the required material are now being placed.

White lights are to be eliminated altogether as a signal indication. Green will replace white for "clear" or "proceed," while a bright, distinctive yellow, visible at great distances, will be used for "caution." Red will continue to mean "stop."

The elimination of white from the signal color scheme has been rendered desirable by the increasing use of white lights of various kinds in buildings, driveways, roads and streets close or adjacent to the Railroad's right of way.

The Pennsylvania Railroad System, however, is unwilling to proceed with the change until a yellow glass could be obtained for the "caution" signals which would give a bright light at long distances and still would not be liable to be mistaken for white, and so confused with other lights along the line of the Railroad. Progress in the art of coloring glass, after years of experiments, has resulted in the production of such glass.

Adoption of the new signal system will mean the changing of hundreds of thousands of colored glasses and lenses. This will require considerable time for completion, especially as slow deliveries are to be expected owing to industrial conditions resulting from the European war.

Not only will alterations have to be made in all of the semaphore signals, but the following devices will also be affected.

Marker lights on the rear of passenger and freight trains; switch lamps and targets; markers for track tanks; "slow" signs; "resume speed" signs; hand lamps at interlocking and block signal stations; and lights displayed to the public at crossing gates. Lights for the latter purpose will be red instead of green, as at present.

The proposed signal system has been tried out on the extreme eastern end of the New York Division and has been found to work satisfactorily. It is also being adopted in portions of the country off the Pennsylvania lines, so that desirable uniformity will be obtained.

No change is to be made on those short portions of the Pennsylvania Railroad lines which are protected by "position light" signals, in which the various indications are given by rows of electric lights showing against a black background in the various positions of the semaphore arms.

PROHIBITION LIVE ISSUE IN TEXAS

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Houston, Texas, Aug. 8.—The part the prohibition question will play in Texas politics for the next year was the predominating issue before the state Democratic convention which opened here today. The convention will continue until the party's business of adopting a platform, ratifying the candidates nominated in the state primary July 22, electing a state executive committee and other routine matters are finished.

Coming on the heels of a referendum election in which the proposition to submit a constitutional amendment for statewide prohibition received a favorable majority of 2,462 votes out of more than 360,000 cast, prohibition is generally considered the greatest political issue in Texas at the present time.

Political observers predict that the Democratic platform would be based on it that it would have an important bearing in deciding the run-off between Senator Charles A. Culberson and Former Governor O. E. Colquitt for the United States senatorial nomination, and that for the coming year at least, the Democratic party would be perceptibly divided on that question.

The results of the July 22 primary, when "submission" carried, were expected to give much material for debate and speculation. Political precedents in Texas show that almost all states, races and questions are divided with the same proportion of votes. In that primary however, Governor James E. Ferguson, who is against statewide prohibition, was renominated by a majority of 67,000 over Charles H. Morris, known as the prohibition candidate.

Senatorial Vaudeville

Both Senator Lewis and Senator Fall could have been employing their time and their talents to much better advantage than they did in indulging in the cheap performance of last Friday when Senator Lewis accused the Republican party managers of being responsible for the Carrizal massacre and Senator Fall with just as little reason and justification accused President Wilson and the present administration with being responsible.

Of course, every man and woman in America knows that both Senators were only staging a bit of cheap political vaudeville, the usefulness of which for misleading voters has long since faded away.

Both Senator Lewis and Senator Fall are paid by the people to attend to the legislation of the land. Neither one of the gentlemen is employed to go to Washington and engage in an endeavor to manufacture political buncomb for the consumption of the voters.

The Senate of the United States is supposed to be a dignified legislative body—in fact we Americans love to think of it and point it out to the world as the most august legislative body on earth.

When senators indulge in cheap nonsense like Senators Lewis and Fall did last Friday all our high ideals are smashed into fragments.

Senate and house would do very much better if they would attend honestly and conscientiously to the real business and let politics alone.

Incidentally too, they would be given more honor and would get more votes, if they only knew it.

Congratulation and Complaint

Our officials are making some progress. The debris and earth heaps are being removed from the newly finished paved streets. There is yet some considerable work to do along that line, but the officials are moving.

We have now progressed to the point where bids for doing the very much needed work of flushing, have been submitted, after so long a time, and it's now up to the service department to contract. All in all there seems now some reason to hope that before the snow flies again the flusher may be at work, although the hold up of bids Monday night is discouraging.

There is another matter—a little thing too—which demands attention and that's the condition of the court house lawn and walks.

Of course, we all realize that this has been an unusually dry hot time and no one expects to see the lawn covered with fresh green grass. People can expect and do expect that the lawn be kept clean and the sidewalks free from litter and filth.

Especially around the benches and walks and the beautiful memorial fountain are conditions little short of disgraceful.

Peanut hulls, sacks, papers, small boxes and all sorts of trash, cigar stumps and tobacco cuds litter the walks and corner until folks are almost compelled to pick their way through.

Strangers must marvel that our people allow such a beautiful corner to remain in such an unsightly and untidy condition.

It is some one's duty to clean up the corner and lawn and keep it clean.

Russia's Rejuvenation

The Russians continue their onward sweep in the eastern war zone. The great horde of Turks rushed in to check the Slav avalanche has proven impotent to the task imposed.

Line after line and city after city are surrendered with large numbers of prisoners to the victorious armies of the Czar, until now the fall of Lemberg seems imminent.

The rejuvenation of the Russian armies has been one of the big surprises of the great war.

Not only in Galicia are the Russians making remarkable advances, but in Armenia, under the Grand Duke Nicholas the armies from the far north are proving equal to the task imposed and in the Turks' own climate of heat and drouth and proving more than equal to every call.

It is not impossible with the urgent necessity to strengthen lines in the west and in Galicia the Germans may be compelled to withdraw enough troops from the Riga sector and Poland to warrant the inauguration of an offensive by the Czar in those sections.

If so, it will not be surprising to see stricken Poland again the bloody battle grounds, again fought over and once more fall under the dominion of the "Little Father."

As the war progresses the importance of Russia's support becomes more pronounced and the size of her reward when peace comes grows with a demonstration of her value to the Entente powers.

Poetry For Today

YOU.

You are the twilight when the task is through.
The restfulness when the long day goes by;
You are the dayspring and the sunrise too,
The rose-dawn on the sky.

You are the blessed rain on desert sands,
The river that redeems the wilderness,
The healing stream that runs through weary lands
Alone to bless.

You are the water when I faint with thirst,
You are the food when I am famishing,
You are the drop of honey in the first
Wild flower of spring.

You are the azure herald of the spring,
The first glad robin song when March is long;
My heart laughs back in rapture welcoming
The first spring song.

You are the Sabbath in the June of year
The rarest, fairest day when June is come,
The gracious autumn with fruition here,
The harvest home.

You are the strength when heart and soul are faint,
The only perfect rose without a sting—
Why hope to tell you all you are, my saint,
For you are everything.
—Springfield Republican.

Columbus, Aug. 8.—The employees of the state bindery now receive union wages for the first time in the state's history, State Printer J. E. Cross has reported to Governor Willis in his annual report.

More than 8,000,000 books and pamphlets were turned out by the state plant during the year ending June 30, Cross says. His department, he says, has a surplus of $38,770 to turn back to the state treasury "despite the fact that the volume of work was the largest in its history."

RUSSIANS PUSH FORWARD

Successes Recorded in the Sereth and Graberke River Regions of Galicia. Turks Report Russian Reverses in Persia and Armenia—Brisk Engagements Fought On the Italian Front. British Victory Near Suez Canal.

London, Aug. 8.—Amid continuous heavy rains, which have turned the country into a quagmire, the Russians are keeping up their strong offensive against the Teutonic allies in northern Galicia and have pushed further forward their lines against them in the Sereth and Graberke river region.

Also along the Stokhod river, in Volhynia, near the town of Zarece, the Russians have driven the Teutons from their trenches and occupied them, taking 12 officers and 200 men prisoners and capturing one machine gun in the operation. In the Carpathians the Germans report the capture of two peaks from the Russians.

After bombardment of British positions in the Somme sector in France, the Germans launched violent infantry attacks north and northeast of Pozieres, and at two places succeeded in entering British trenches. Their success was short-lived, for the British soon drove them out, inflicting heavy casualties on them.

The French captured a line of German trenches near the Hem wood, taking 120 prisoners and ten machine guns. The French also claim progress south of the Thiaumont work.

Constantinople reports a series of gains for the Turks fighting against the Russians, and Petrograd admits at least one of the claims—that the Russians have been forced to retire under pressure in the region east of Kermanhah, Persia. An attack by the Russians north of Bukau, on the Persian front, was put down with heavy losses to the Russians, according to Constantinople, and in Turkish Armenia, near Bitlis and Mush, the Russians have been put to flight and the Turks have taken from them positions the Russians had previously captured.

Near Monte Sabotino and Monte San Michele, the Italians captured advanced Austrian positions, but Vienna says the greater portion of these were later retaken by the Austrians. On the lower Isonzo, Rome reports the capture by the Italians of Hill 85, which was held against violent counter attacks.

The latest reports concerning the attack of the Turks against the British forces, with the Suez canal as their objective, indicates that the Ottoman forces met with a reverse even more serious than was first chronicled. Driven back eighteen miles into the desert, fighting rear guard action, they suffered heavy casualties and of their total force of 14,000 lost 45 officers and 3,000 men made prisoners. They now have been entirely cleared from the Katia Umalshi basin.

RECORDS BROKEN IN STATE DEP'T

(By American Press)

Columbus, Aug. 8.—July was another big month in the workmen's compensation department of the state industrial commission, a total of 9,722 claims having been filed during that time. Of this number 39 were death claims, all the others being for minor injuries. The report of Chief Claim Examiner H. H. Hamm shows that a total of 197,472 claims have been filed with the commission, of which number 1,953 were for fatal accidents to Ohio workmen. The commission has taken final action in 18,883 cases, leaving less than 9,000 yet to be disposed of. Three public employees were fatally injured during the month and 123 reported otherwise injured.

CHAMP'S BIRTHDAY

Washington, Aug. 8.—When Republican Leader Mann reminded the house that Speaker Clark had just passed his thirty-third anniversary as a member of congress, Republicans and Democrats rose and cheered the speaker for several minutes. Responding, Mr. Clark said he wasn't sure he wanted to remain in the house another thirty-three years, but did know he wanted to stay as long as he could.

BOARD OF CONTROL BALKS ON THE FLUSHING CONTRACT

Mystery Surrounds Failure of Board to Act and the Flushing of Streets Is Still Tied Up—Plans for New Lighting System—Washington Water Company to Construct New Dam.

Council opened with all members present and with the council room like an oven, no provision having been made for electric fans in the council room, and the ventilation being very poor.

Edgar Snyder asked for extension of a sewer to three lots on Rawling street, and this was granted.

D. T. McLean urged council to go slow in the letting of contract for flushing, stating that he had been called by R. C. Hunt, president of the Taxpayers League, who had informed him that the amount was excessive.

Application was made for new light on Gregg street, at intersection of Pearl and Gregg.

New Light Plans.

A new lighting plan was submitted by the Washington Gas & Electric Company, in accordance with arrangement made at the last previous meeting.

The new plan is for 165 lamps of 250 candle power each, and 70 lamps of 100 candle power each, or a total, figured on the candle power mentioned, of 48,250 candle power, or approximately 2000 candle power less than contained in the other plan of 416 lamps of 100 candle power and 36 lamps of 250 candle power.

The specifications were for a 4,000 hour, or all night and every night schedule, and a sample contract for a period of ten years.

This was referred to the lighting committee to investigate and report upon at the next meeting.

This system, it is understood, can be furnished at near the present cost for street lighting.

Would Build Dam.

Application was made by the Washington Water Company, through Supt. E. P. Fisher, for agreement of council to the construction of a new dam across Paint creek about 100 feet below the present dam, for the purpose of creating a greater storage reservoir in the basin of the creek to insure proper water supply during dry weather.

It is announced that the dam proposed is to be much longer and higher than the old dam, and hold approximately 8,000,000 to 10,000,000 gallons of water. The State Board of Health had a representative down last week, and he agreed to the plan it was announced, but stated that it would be necessary to construct concrete tops three feet above the present well tops to keep out surface water during flood stage.

Council will investigate and act at an early session.

J. C. Mayer & Company's bid of par, accrued interest and premium of $1250 on the $25,000 bond issue, was accepted.

Mayor Oster's report for July was read, showing $19 fines, $5 dog licenses and $5 street licenses.

An ordinance to appropriate $250 to pay for cleaning the up town streets was passed.

Same Old Squabble.

An ordinance was submitted to levy special assessment on the How-

at lands on Leesburg avenue, for the purpose of constructing the much mooted sidewalk on that street. This brought up the usual squabble over that improvement, Sheets and Rowe opposing the proposal and the other councilmen insisting that it go through.

Evans called attention to the improvement being part of a previous plan and stated that it was included under former legislation and should have been constructed accordingly. Sheets stated that he had previously voted for the improvement without knowing it was included in the legislation, and that the city could not collect the assessment if the work was done.

Veal stated that some property owners declared that unless the improvement was made as originally contemplated, they would not pay their assessments on Leesburg avenue.

After further pointed remarks hurled by various councilmen, a vote was taken with Sheets and Rowe opposing and the others voting in favor of the motion.

That Flushing Joke.

Solicitor Gregg submitted to council a resolution approving the letting of flushing contract to J. S. Wilt, but took occasion to state that the Board of Control, just before the meeting of council, had failed to agree upon letting the contract.

Attention was called to the bids being per square yard instead of per foot front. Solicitor Gregg stated that it was necessary for the Board of Control to act before council could affirm their action.

Service-Safety Director, a member of the Board of Control, stated that he did not feel like letting the contract at present, and wanted an expression from council on the matter.

The Wilt bid was read, and no serious fault noted by council, whereupon Evans stated that if the bid was regular, that the contract should be awarded to Mr. Wilt. Wilt was present and announced his readiness to comply with the terms of the specifications.

Veal moved acceptance of the Wilt bid. Evans declared the bid was probably the lowest the city would ever get, and it was time to quit quibbling and get down to business.

The four bids, based upon price per square yard, are as follows: J. S. Wilt—Flushing four times each week, 8.4c; three times, 6.3c; two times, 4.2c; one time, 2.1c.

Tom Hillery—Four times each week, 8.4c; three times, 7.4c; two times, 7.4c; one time, 6.4c.

O. D. Maddox and Ralph Hess—Four times, 10.4c; three times 9.4c; two times 8.4c; one time 7.4c; Chas. Head—Four times, 11c; three times 10.4c; two times, 9c; one time 7.4c.

John Worrell submitted figures on Columbus property where sprinkling and sweeping was performed once each month.

Geo. Inskeep thought council should go slow, and mentioned the flushing cost proposed as excessive compared with what Circleville was paying. He asked ample investigation be made before a contract is let.

Hess, one of the bidders, stated that Circleville was not flushing streets at present.

When vote was taken on Evans' motion, Evans, Veal, Howell and Rowe voted favorably, and the others voted against the measure. Immediately thereafter Sheets moved for adjournment until next Monday night.

DEATH SUMMONS HARRY A. GREEN

After several years of illness caused by hardening of the arteries Harry A. Green, answered the eternal summons at twenty minutes past four o'clock Monday afternoon at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. George Hanawalt, near Austin.

Mr. Green would have been 45 years old on the 17th of this month. His years had been rounded out in the esteem of many friends and the respect of business associates and his death is learned with very general sorrow and sympathy for his family.

For seventeen years Mr. Green was one of the most successful traveling salesmen with the Dahl-Milkan Grocery Company. Everybody knew "Harry" and his customers were also his friends.

He was a popular member of the I. O. O. F. and U. C. T., but his deepest interests centered in his home, where a widow and two children, Helen and Harry, grieve for a devoted husband and father.

The family spent the past winter in Florida in the vain hope that the climate would prove beneficial, and since their return have been with Mrs. Green's parents near Austin.

The funeral services will be held at the Austin Chapel, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage, of the First Presbyterian church of this city, and Rev. Stone, of Frankfort, will officiate. The I. O. O. F. will also hold a short service.

At sunset all that is mortal will be laid to rest in the cemetery at Frankfort.

DEATH SUMMONS J. L. PERSINGER

John L. Persinger, prominent farmer and stock raiser of this city and widely known as Fayette county's largest landowner, passed into the great beyond Tuesday morning at five o'clock at his home on Dayton avenue.

For some time Mr. Persinger had been suffering from a serious trouble and for the past six months has been confined to his residence.

The only son of the late David Persinger, one of the early settlers and wealthy farmers of the county, Mr. Persinger from the time of his earliest maturity engaged in the same agricultural pursuits of his father, extending his farm interests greatly as the years advanced and being one of the foremost cattle raisers of the county.

It was due to Mr. Persinger that many tracts of land were reclaimed through ditching and he was also active in the pioneer movement in the interests of the C. H. & D. railroad.

Throughout his long and active life, reaching his eightieth year, Mr. Persinger confined his interests to his business and his family, remaining free from outside affiliations to a very unusual degree for a man of his affluence.

He is survived by a widow and seven children: Charles Persinger, Mrs. Harry Pugsley, Miss Fannie, Dr. Carey Persinger, Mrs. John Case, of Greenfield, Jesse P. and Rilla Persinger.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m., Thursday at the residence, burial to follow in the Washington cemetery.

The family requests that friends kindly omit flowers.

DEATHS BAYLES.

Mr. Edward Bayles, of Bloomingburg, died at the Ohio State Hospital Monday evening.

The remains were brought to the undertaking rooms of undertaker Klever, Tuesday afternoon from the 3:40 train.

Funeral arrangements will be announced in Wednesday paper.

In Social Circles

With only the immediate families in attendance at the home of the bride Monday evening at seven o'clock, Rev. J. Vernon Stone performed the double ring ceremony which united in marriage Miss Edna Fenner and Dr. L. Loring Brock. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fenner, and granddaughter of Mrs. Electa J. Selsor, her family connection a large and representative one. She is a girl of unusually winning personality and as pretty as she is sweet and lovable.

In her going away gown, a modish fall suit of French serge, in navy blue, with bodice of Alice blue georgette crepe and filet net, and chic small hat of blue and white, she was a most charming young bride.

Dr. Brock, the son of Mrs. Josephine Kimball, is one of the foremost young physicians of this section, with a very large clientele and an unusual personal popularity in both his professional and social life.

Except for a year abroad spent chiefly in special medical and surgical work in the hospitals of Vienna, Dr. Brock has practiced his profession with growing success in this city since receiving his diploma at Starling Medical College.

The best wishes of a host of friends, confined by no means to the younger circles of their greatest intimacy, follow Dr. Brock and his bride upon their wedding journey.

They left on the Queen City limited for Chicago and a month's trip. Upon their return they will go at once to house-keeping in the Kearney residence on the corner of Market and Forest streets, recently vacated by Hon. and Mrs. Frank C. Parrett.

An enjoyable family reunion was held by Mrs. Robert Olinger and family, three miles west of Washington C. H., on Sunday. Those who participated were:

Mr. and Mrs. George Olinger and family; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Engle; Mrs. Jessie Bush and son Otis; Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Kennedy and niece Helen Orr; Mr. and Mrs. Logan Buzick; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Coil and family; Mr. Walter Engle, all from Washington C. H.; Mrs. Chas. Davis and niece Dora Parks; Miss Blanche Davis and Willie Brown; Miss Marie Ward and Harold West, all from Wilmington and Macedonia.

Miss Dora Parks remained for the week end with Miss Ho Olinger.

Miss Blanche Beltzer of Covington, Ky., is spending the day here.

Mrs. Wm. Trovillo, of Roxabel is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Vincent.

Miss Hazel Fultz of Columbus is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. O. H. Robbins, for the week.

Judge Joseph Hidy and Mr. Herman Jones were business visitors in Hillsboro Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Virginia Campbell has returned from a week's visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Campbell, in Bainbridge.

Ralph Mayer left the first of the week for Lincoln, Ill., to be the guest of his aunt, Mrs. J. W. Irish, at a beautiful summer home she has just opened for tendays.

Miss Zella Patton returned to her home in Columbus Tuesday after a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Mary Patton, and sister, Miss Metha Patton and Mrs. C. A. Reid.

Major Rell G. Allen of the Fourth Regiment, and Billie E. Paul, First Lieutenant of Company M, came down from Columbus for the primary.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Fisher came Sunday morning from Mishawaka, Ind., for a visit with the Misses Adams and Miller on Washington avenue.

Mrs. George Moore and daughter, Miss Edith, Mrs. Ashley Wood and daughter Miss Clara, motored up to Urbana, Tuesday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse P. Kellough for the day. Miss Wood remained for a visit with her sister.

Misses Lida and Kate Williams leave in the morning for Kansas City, Mo., to visit their sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary T. Williams and family. Enroute they will stop for a few days visit with relatives in Dayton and Richmond Ind.

Mrs. J. M. Gustin accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Elinore Vandervort of Cincinnati, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Alice Adams, for the past few weeks, went to Wilmington Monday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Laura Gaskill.

PRIMARY VOTE SAME AS USUAL

Indications as late as two o'clock Tuesday afternoon were that the primary vote being polled would reach about the usual primary vote of between one-third and one-half the total vote of the county.

Many of those voting went to the polls early, and from nine o'clock until noon, in the city, not many voted. There was another rush at the noon hour, however and then the voting quieted down again until late in the afternoon.

Indications were that the Democratic vote would be very light.

Chief interest in the local ticket was in the fight for commissioner, clerk of courts and prosecutor, and the candidates and their friends were invariably active throughout the day.

In all probability the count-out will be completed early tonight.

DEATH CALLS OCTOGENARIAN

Mrs. Humphrey E. Thompson, one of the respected older residents of this city, passed quietly away in the grey dawn of Tuesday morning, at her home on S. North street.

Death was caused by the infirmities due to her advanced age of 85 years.

Mrs. Thompson was formerly Harriet Hillhouse and was born and raised at Chillicothe.

For the past twenty years she has made her home in this city, with her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, who has given the most devoted care and affection during her mother's declining years.

Before her health failed, Mrs. Thompson was active in the work of Grace church, the W. C. T. U. and other societies. Her friends were many and warm and their sympathy goes out to the lonely daughter at home and the children away from here.

Mrs. Thompson is survived by five children: L. J., of Chillicothe; T. W., of Springfield; J. D., of Findlay, Mrs. Edwin Ater of Springfield and Elizabeth Thompson.

Mrs. Ater arrived Monday evening and the other children Tuesday. Funeral services will be held at two o'clock p. m., Thursday. Burial will be made in the family lot of the Washington cemetery.

HUGHES ASSAILS WILSON

Foreign Policies Attacked By Republican Nominee.

MEXICO GIVEN AN AIRING

Speaker Holds Vera Cruz Incident an Act of War and Declares If Elected President He Will See to It That American Rights Are Respected In Mexico—First Set Speech of Trip Made at Detroit.

Detroit, Aug. 8.—Before a large audience in Arcadia auditorium, last night, Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for president, attacked the administration for its foreign policy, for appointing men whom he termed inexperienced in diplomatic posts and for what he characterized as a "raid upon the civil service of the United States."

"He kept us out of war," Mr. Hughes said, referring to the president, "and yet we seized Vera Cruz—that was war, a very ignoble war. And it was called war over the bodies of those dead soldiers—it was called a war of service."

"Talk about policy. What is the president's policy—does any one know? Has the executive ever had a policy for more than six months on the Mexican question? I repeat, who knows today what the policy of the administration will be three months hence? My friends, the trouble is that this administration has written such a record that no matter what it says, you do not know whether it will stick to it."

"We have had an exhibition during the past three years which, I confess, fills me with a deep sense of shame. I have not a particle of militaristic spirit in my system, but if I am elected president I will see to it that the American rights in Mexico are respected."

Mr. Hughes assailed the administration's course toward upholding American rights abroad during the European war. "When I say that I am an American citizen," the nominee said, "I ought to say the proudest thing that any man can say in this world. But you can't have that pride if American citizenry is a cheap thing, if it is not worthy of protection this wide world over. There is no man who could successfully present to an American community the platform that an American citizen's rights stop at the coast line, and that beyond that American life is to be the prey of any marauder that chooses to take it."

The nominee cited the Republican platform's declaration that 30,000 government positions had been taken from the operation of the civil service law during the present administration and declared that "that sort of thing has got to stop."

"It was inexcusable," Mr. Hughes asserted, for the administration to take "out of country after country in Latin America, where we have frequently said we desired to cultivate the most friendly relations," men in the diplomatic service who "had represented the country with credit and had acquired an admirable and important experience," and "put in men utterly inexperienced."

Speaking to forty manufacturers of Detroit and vicinity, employing nearly 100,000 men, Mr. Hughes congratulated them upon what they had done for the welfare of their employees, told them that the democracy of the United States would not stand for a continuation of "this alleged strife between capital and labor and declared that the American workmen should not be regarded as a mere economic unit, but as a fellow worker, a human being."

BALLOT BATTLE RAGES TODAY

Light Vote Anticipated at the Primaries Today.

Columbus, Aug. 8.—At the primaries today candidates for state and county offices are to be nominated and members of the Republican and Democratic county central committees and the state central committees are to be elected. The polls opened at 5:30 a. m. and will close at 5:30 p. m.

Although only a light vote is predicted by election board officials, the candidates are so numerous that it is expected it will be late tonight before results are definitely known.

The hottest contest is that between Myron T. Herrick and Harry M. Daugherty for the Republican nomination for United States senator. Senator Pomeroy is expected to defeat John J. Lentz for the Democratic nomination for senator.

For governor it is expected that Frank B. Willis and James M. Cox will be the Republican and Democratic nominees respectively.

COULDN'T CONCLUDE THE TASK

Naval Bill Referred Back to the Two Houses.

TWO POINTS OF DISPUTE

House Conferees Opposed to the Senate Program For the Construction of Eighteen Capital Ships and to Personnel Increases—Administration Heads Would Induce House Leaders to Yield.

Washington, Aug. 8.—The conferees on the naval appropriation bill voted to disagree on the big construction program and personnel increases, the only remaining points of dispute in that measure, so that the issues might be referred back for quick settlement by the two houses themselves.

A complete agreement was submitted by the conference committee on the army appropriation bill.

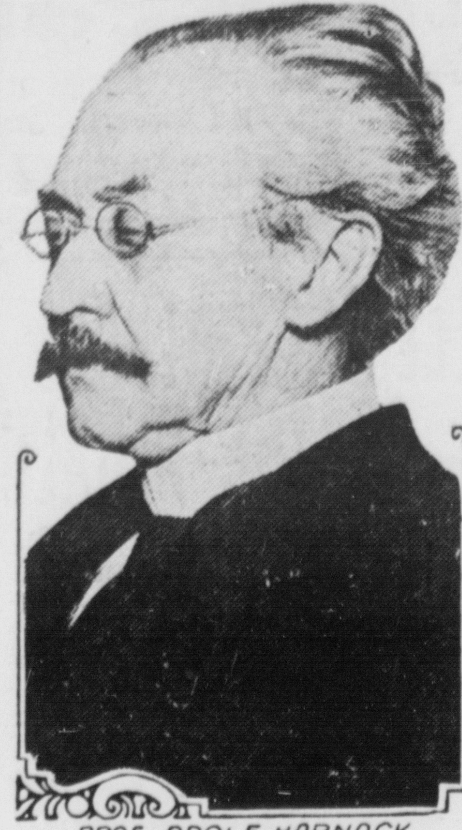

Members of the house, the majority of whom are away on vacation, will be called to Washington next week for a vote on the building and personnel sections of the naval bill. Representative Padgett, chairman of the house committee, said he would submit the conference report Thursday and call it up the following Tuesday or Wednesday for action.

President Wilson, navy department officials and other "adequate defense" champions of the administration are expected to make a determined effort to induce house leaders to yield to the senate program for construction of 66 vessels, 18 of them to be capital ships, during 1917.

The house provided for only five capital ships. If it votes to insist on its original provisions, it is said the senate conferees will offer to give up the three-year continuing program in the senate bill as an inducement to house leaders to reconsider and accept the big program for the first year.

The army appropriation bill as agreed on carried $267,597,000, or $85,000 in excess of the house bill. A report had been delayed several days while the war department made an unsuccessful effort to induce the house conferees to recede from their insistence on the Hay amendment, making retired officers exempt from the provisions of the military code. President Wilson and Secretary Baker objected to the amendment.

PROFESSOR HARNACK TALKS ON PEACE AND DEFENDS GERMAN GOVERNMENT

PROF. ADOLF HARNACK.

Professor Adolf Harnack, the eminent German theologian, whose works are known throughout the world, is one of the most conspicuous of the men now lecturing to Germans on peace, with the sanction of the German government. These men began their endeavors in the large cities of the empire August 1. They desire to prepare the minds of their compatriots for consideration of the war's end and the objects to be attained by Germany's gigantic struggles. Professor Harnack is a professor of theology and general director of the Royal library in Berlin. Of his numerous books, "What is Christianity?" is probably best known to English speaking readers. In his address in Berlin he warned his hearers not to expect or demand too much from the results of the war, as Germany must remember the lot of her confederates as well as her own success. He appealed for confidence in the administration of Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg, which he said had done its utmost to avert the war. Its attitude toward certain neutrals history would some day justify, Professor Harnack said.

PRUNING KNIFE

(By American Press)

Washington, Aug. 8.—The conferees on the army appropriation bill cut the appropriation which Secretary of War Baker requested to pay the expenses of mobilization camps down to exactly one-half of the amount asked for by the secretary of war. Secretary Baker asked for $3,000,000 and the conferees allowed $1,500,000. Secretary Baker in his letter to the military committee of congress refers specifically to the expenditure of $239,000 at Upper Arlington, Columbus, and says the large expenditures there should not have been made without authority of the war department.

SUGGEST CHANGE MUNITIONS TAX

Senators Also Propose Increases In Inheritance Tax.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Complete revision of the munitions tax section of the house revenue bill and sweeping increases in the inheritance tax were ordered recommended to the Democratic caucus by Democratic members of the senate finance committee. The proposed higher taxes on big inheritances will increase the estimated revenue from that section of the bill alone from $54,000,000 to $72,000,000 annually.

Retaining in the house bill taxes of 1 per cent on estates over $50,000 graduated up to 5 per cent on those in excess of $450,000, the committee added schedules of 6 per cent on net estates in excess of $1,000,000; 7 per cent on $2,000,000 to $3,000,000; 8 per cent on $3,000,000 to $4,000,000; 9 per cent on $4,000,000 to $5,000,000, and 10 per cent on estates in excess of $5,000,000.

In revising the munitions tax the committee struck out the varying rates provided in the house bill for munitions of war, powder, explosives, shells, cartridges, projectiles, products of copper and the like, and decided to substitute a flat uniform tax on all of these commodities.

The income tax section is completed, the committee retaining the normal tax of 2 per cent on all incomes in excess of $4,000 and $3,000, respectively, for married and single persons, adding the special tax of 1 per cent on incomes in excess of $3,000 and $2,000, respectively, for married and single persons; retaining the sur-taxes as proposed in the house bill, with the exception of an increase from 10 to 13 per cent on incomes in excess of $1,000,000. All of the proposed changes are subject to the approval of the Democratic caucus.

FORWARD

(By American Press)

London, Aug. 8.—Closing in upon German East Africa, separate British forces have won victories both on the south and east, it was officially announced.

British naval forces, co-operating with General Smuts, occupied the small German port of Sandan last Tuesday after slight opposition. Other naval operations are progressing along the coast line. In the region of Mpwapwa, 150 miles west of the coast, a British detachment operating in the direction of Singedda engaged an enemy force which surrendered after a vigorous resistance in a block-house. General Mortimer, operating in the southern part of the German colony, defeated the Germans in an engagement July 24 near Malangali, the Germans losing 150 killed and wounded, besides prisoners.

SYNOPSIS.

Pierpont Stafford, banker and railroad magnate, with his sixteen-year-old daughter Gloria, is wintering at Palm Beach. Gloria is a vivacious, but willful young lady who chafes under the restraining hand of a governess from whom she repeatedly escapes. Her childish capers cause young Doctor Royce to fall in love with her. She steals from her room at night and in an auto plunges into the surf where she leaves the car.

Just about the time that Gloria Stafford was feeling her way through the thickets about the Cypress Wolf village Shonolakee led the old horse out to slaughter. She was weeping so bitterly that she did not heed when the sacrificial knife fell from her belt. She tied the horse, said her prayer, and reached for the blade. It was gone. She turned back to look for it. She had not gone far when Gloria Stafford parted the palmetto leaves and saw before her the steed she had prayed for.

She approached it with coaxing words and untied the halter. The pony shied and tried to caress her with its heels. Gloria had been well schooled in horsemanship from childhood, and she soon had her hands in the mane of the unwilling mustang and vaulted to its back.

She had no sooner set her heels into its ribs than the old squaw returned with the recovered knife. She saw the sanctified charger being carried off—and by a ragamuffin evidently from one of the white trash families that even the Seminoles despised.

She gave a wild cry of alarm, the fierce "Yo-ho-ee-hee!" that had once made the Indian-hunters' blood run cold. The tribe answered in wondering haste. She pointed to Gloria and the vanishing horse. It was not vanishing very fast, for the wilderness was thick and Gloria did not know the way. The Seminoles divided and ran in various directions to head her off.

In a few moments the young chief himself leaped from ambush, and caught the horse by the nose and ear. The old squaw was not far behind and Gloria was dragged to the ground and threatened with the death of a thief—a sacrilegious thief.

Old Shonolakee raised her knife and was about to plunge it into the heart of the shivering captive when something about the captive made her pause. She saw that the lad was a lass. Her rage was forgotten in amazement for a moment. She grinned: "The boy is one squaw."

The other Indians stared at Gloria and the pallor of her horror was reddened with shame. The blush was very becoming to her. The young chief stepped forward for a closer look at it.

Thinking him a possible rescuer Gloria turned on him one of her ninety candlepower smiles. The effect was greater than she had expected. Katalani was dazzled. He blinked, then turned his eyes on the smoky Indian maidens clustered about. Each of them had ambitious dreams of being his wife. But shabbily as Gloria was dressed she was a tearing beauty in any company. Compared to the unkempt daughters of the everglades she was a goddess.

Katalani's heart beat with a new kind of excitement. He resolved to begin his new chieftainship with an act of courage. He would defy not only the men, but even the women! He seized Gloria's hand and shouted:

"If boy is squaw he is my squaw."

Gloria did not understand the meaning of this. But she saw that it had not endeared her to the Indian women. They murmured their wrath and would have struck her down if Katalani had not protected her. She drew closer to him and he took that for consent.

They led her into the village, a huddled group of palmetto leaves. Shonolakee first went aside and sent the dead chief's horse on the long road to the happy pastures. Then she returned to prepare Gloria for the honor of becoming the wife of the chief. She led her into her own hut and gave her the habiliments of an honest squaw in place of the boy's disgraceful togs. Seminole ladies are modest. Then she showed Gloria a little sewing machine. She had bought it with the proceeds of rattlesnake skins she had sold to tourists in the village along the railroad. She promised Gloria that some day if she were good she might be allowed to play on the machine. The squaw's idea of being good consisted largely of doing heavy labor. The first duty of a wife was to gather wood for the fire. She set Gloria to work.

Marguerite Clark leads an exceptional list of Paramount stars at the Wonderland this week, appearing Tuesday in a Daniel Frohman production of "Mice and Men," adapted from the original stage version. In this clever comedy-drama, Miss Clarke will surprise her admirers.

Dustin Farnum is the central figure of Wednesday's bill, "The Call of the Cumberlands," a big outdoor sort of a story for a big outdoor sort of a man. The play is a screen interpretation of the play and novel of the name written by Charles Neville Black. This, too, is a Paramount.

SHONTS AND HEDLEY, LEADING FIGURES IN NEW YORK CAR STRIKE

T. P. SHONTS (upper) and FRANK HEDLEY (lower)

Two of the most prominent men in the great transit strike in New York city are pictured in the cut. Above is Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Interborough-Metropolitan company, which operates the subway and elevated lines and most of the surface lines in the city. The lower picture is that of Frank Hedley, general manager of the New York Railway company, in direct charge of the surface lines in Manhattan borough. Officials of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees asserted that Messrs. Shonts and Hedley would "receive the surprise of their lives" when reports were brought to them of the boast of Mr. Shonts and Mr. Hedley that they had received assurances that 94 per cent of their men would remain loyal to the company.

FINANCIAL WORRIES

(By American Press)

Springfield, Aug. 8.—B. B. Roof, who is said to have worried over financial troubles for the past week, shot and killed his wife and baby and then died, a suicide. Roof was a farmer and lived near Northampton.

Coal Miners Wanted.
Bridgeport, O., Aug. 8.—Four thousand more miners are needed in eastern Ohio, according to C. J. Albasin, commissioner of the Ohio Coal operators here. Approximately 13,500 men are now employed in this subdistrict, which is about 150 below normal when all the mines are operating. All the mines are now working.

Young Girl Attacked.
Toledo, Aug. 8.—Armed with shot-guns, rifles, clubs and pistols, residents of Walbridge and farmers in the vicinity searched the country for a man who attacked a ten-year-old girl living near Walbridge. The girl was walking home with a pail of milk and a basket of eggs when she was attacked and dragged into a cornfield.

Pauline Frederick, chief among Paramount's ultra-beauties, is the sinuous star of Friday's Paramount, "The Spider," a Vampire play from the pen of William H. Clifford expressed through Daniel Frohman.

COLONIAL.
Versatile Mae Marsh and Robert Harron, long and lean but there with the goods, do double-harness in a lively, open air drama entitled "The Wild Girl of the Sierras," presented by Triangle at the Colonial Theater Monday and Tuesday.

Emily Wehlen, the famous Viennese actress, whose American appearances on board and screen have added appreciably to her laurels, is the Colonial's Wednesday star, appearing in a Metro emotional of striking power, "When a Woman Loves."

William S. Hart, "The Iron Man" returns Thursday and Friday with teeth gritted and fists clenched in one of his best recent characterizations, "The Apostle of Vengeance," a play revolving about a family feud in the fastnesses of Kentucky. The atmosphere is the same this vital profrayer has ever breathed, though the locality itself is quite new.

PALACE.
Bertha Kalish is the first of the Palace's feature stars for the week leading Tuesday in "Ambition," a picture which amounts to a detailed study of the virtuous vice—or vicious virtue—of self betterment. The play is a Fox.

Beloved Billie Burke appears again Wednesday in the second chapter of the popular serial "Gloria's Romance."

"Love's Toll," the V. L. S. E. offering for this week, introduces three comparatively late but none the less proficient stars, Rosetta Brice, Richard Buhler and Crauford Kent. It presents the efforts of the heroine to become a famous prima donna and her experiences with two widely different men. A physical encounter between these men is the picture's vital feature.

Friday, unannounced; Saturday, "Pe o' the Ring," 7th chapter. "Peg o' the Ring," 7th chapter.

FIRE MARSHAL HAS BUSY MONTH

Columbus, O., August 8.—The Bermuda "Hi" never fazed the twenty-five deputies, inspectors, investigators and assistants of State Fire Marshal Bert B. Buckley, every one of whom were on duty every day during July, making the torrid month a mid-summer record breaker for the department.

Regardless of the heat there were nearly 1,000 inspections and orders placed on over 800 fire hazards. During the month a dozen arrests were made in arson cases, with the following results: Six confessions; bound over, eight; juvenile court, three; committed to asylum, three.

TORRIDITY BROKEN BY MORNING RAINS

The heat wave was broken temporarily, Tuesday morning, by scattered rains, at no time prior to eleven o'clock Tuesday morning the mercury reaching higher than 74 degrees, and at eleven o'clock the mercury stood at 70.

But Monday afternoon and Monday night were hot ones, the mercury as gagged by the thermometer on Gossard's corner, registering 76 degrees at midnight, a drop of four degrees from nine o'clock Monday night. Monday afternoon the mercury climbed up into the nineties.

Occasional cool breezes prevented the night from being wholly unbearable.

OFFICIAL REPORT

The following report is based upon reports received from regular crop correspondents of the Department of agriculture.

The wheat harvest is far enough advanced that an estimate of the yield may be made with approximate correctness. Correspondents of this Department estimate the production at 70 per cent compared with a normal production of 15 bushels per acre. The estimated acreage harvested was 1,577,352 acres. Total production should be approximately 16,562,196 bushels, being 19,468,042 bushels short of 1915 crop.

Oats show a decrease of 2 per cent in prospect compared with estimate of one month ago. The outlook is most discouraging. The severe drought has cut the crop short.

Clover hay will produce an average of 1.6 tons per acre. Timothy put away in best condition for many years with an estimate of 104 per cent compared with an average.

Potatoes show serious damage by drought and bugs and in some localities won't produce half a crop. The general state prospect is estimated at 70 per cent compared with a normal yield a decrease 19 points compared with estimates of one month ago.

Pastures show a decline of 16 points compared with report of last month.

Apples and peaches are reported as dropping badly. Apples being estimated at 55 percent compared with an average, as peaches at 49 per cent.

The continued drouth is affecting very unfavorably all growing crops. Some local showers occurred, but were not sufficient for any material improvement. Corn, potatoes, pastures, tobacco and garden truck are suffering badly and unless rain comes soon, these crops will be very light. Water getting scarce.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, August 8.—Without debate, the Senate today agreed to the conference report on the army appropriation bill, carrying $267,597,000, for maintenance of the re-organized Regular Army and National Guard.

As soon as the House takes similar action, the bill will be ready for the President.

The Navy bill also was in its last stages today, although failure of the conferees to agree on the important building and personnel provisions made necessary the less speedy method of referring Senate and House differences back to those bodies.

WOLCOTTS MEET IN CONVENTION

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—Wolcotts from nearly every state in the union met in Chicago today to attend the twelfth annual reunion of the Society of Descendants of Henry Wolcott who came to Plymouth in 1630 and to whom more than 5,000 persons trace their ancestry through ten generations.

The first Wolcott to make America his home settled in Windsor, Conn., and for centuries the main branch of the family remained in the New England states. The family claims 150 names on the revolutionary records of Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut and New York. Thirteen governors of Connecticut and 36 judges in that state during the colonial period were Wolcotts or descendants from that family, the family history says. During the revolutionary period the history claims Oliver Wolcott one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, his son Oliver who was secretary of the treasury in Washington's cabinet and several generals famous in the war. The history enumerates scores of other Wolcotts who since then have held high military, civil and political positions.
